

Letter from President

August was a very exciting and busy month for everyone with kids going back to school, a very memorable Executive of the Year night, and then the Joint Board Retreat to conclude the month.

On August 13, 2009, at Central Center, EWI® of Tulsa recognized the 2009 Executive of the Year, Jody Davis-Bergman, Accent Moving and Storage/Mayflower. The award was presented by 2008 Executive of the Year, Bill McKamey, Public Service Company of Oklahoma. Mr. McKamey described Jody as a person dedicated to faith, family, and business who has served in numerous EWI leadership positions including Ways & Means Director 2004-2005, Vice President 2005-2006, and President 2006-2007. Always willing to “lend a hand,” Jody was one of the very first professionals I became connected with after moving to Tulsa several years ago. I was especially proud to have the opportunity to see her receive this honor. She was also presented a silver engraved frame and spa services provided by Ihloff Salon & Day Spa.

I appreciate Linda Polson, PSA Dewberry, for creating the presentation featuring our previous Executives of the Year. Thank you Glenda Stoner, Hilti, Inc., for providing the invocation. The evening was a success as we were able to surprise Jody and have her family in attendance to enjoy the celebration. The night included entertainment by the Homeland Howlers, a band comprised of Tulsa Firefighters. A special thanks to Nancy Hillman, American Heart Association, for serving as the Executive of the Year function leader. Good job! I would also like to recognize Karen Johnson, Tulsa Tech, serving as Program Director. Both Nancy and Karen made this special evening possible.

Incoming and outgoing board members gathered for a two-day retreat last weekend. Several Past Presidents joined us to share their experience and insight as we planned for the upcoming year. I look forward to working with the talented ladies serving on the 2009-2010 EWI of Tulsa Board. Be sure to join us for the upcoming Business Meeting and Installation of Officers at Montereau on September 10.

Yours very truly in EWI service,

Jessica Bolen
